

SAY "I DO" AT THE GRAND

There has always been something magical, something indefinable about a Grand Southern wedding – and nowhere does this spirit shine more brightly than at The Grand. Offering a magic elixir of gracious traditions, glorious settings and grand celebrations, here each wedding day is individually perfected and uniquely Grand. Whether a local affair or a destination wedding, the measures that matter most to our certified wedding specialists are the smiles of delighted guests, a couple's carefree bliss, and the cherished moments celebrated between families and friends.

GRAND SPACES

There are nearly endless options at The Grand: the Azalea and Magnolia ballrooms offer ample space and a feeling of intimate sophistication, while The Grand Ballroom, awash in crystal-chandeliered historical elegance, lets up to 1,400 guests spill onto the patio, dancing the night away in the good Bay air. Consider the magical location of the Lagoon Lawn, in the shade of a sprawling Southern Live Oak, surrounded by magnolias and azaleas. Or The Grand Patio, overlooking the water, cooled by the waterfront breeze, with a reception on Julep Point, the outermost tip of the resort, backed by brilliant sunsets and panoramic views of the bay. All of it complemented by dining and drinks done well – honoring the tone and tempo of the day.

DINING AT THE GRAND

At the Grand, we honor our historic Southern roots with an emphasis on locally-sourced menus with an unwavering commitment to accountability, responsibility and sustainability. Ingredients ranging from B&B Pecans to Conecuh Sausage to Claude's Stone Ground Grits come from family farms and businesses throughout Alabama. Our Gulf Wild seafood is fresh daily and responsibly harvested in nearby waters. Even our oyster shells are recycled and reused to create new oyster beds that improve water quality, limit erosion, and provide habitat for other species. In the talented hands of our chefs, and combined with the freshest herbs and produce from our own Hotel Garden, the results are breathtaking dining events and world-class receptions that are unique, imaginative and delicious.
